Significant Policy exclusions

The following significant exclusions apply to the cover provided under the Tesco Bank Home Insurance policy. Details of all exclusions which apply are set out in the Policy Booklet.

Policy exclusions that apply to all sections of cover

You are not covered for:

- Property more specifically covered by another policy of insurance.
- Any criminal or deliberate act by you or your family.
- Any reduction in the market value of any property following its repair or reinstatement.
- Loss or damage caused by wear and tear or reduction in value.
- Loss or damage caused by moths, vermin, insects, parasites, woodworm, rot, fungus or poisoning.
- Loss or damage caused in connection with your trade, business or profession, other than home office equipment within your home for administration or clerical work.
- Loss or damage caused by faulty workmanship, faulty materials or faulty design.

Additionally, you will not be covered for certain incidents including theft, attempted theft, vandalism and malicious acts, escape of water or oil, and accidental damage when your home is not lived in, for a period of 60 days or more in a row. Visits to your home do not constitute it being lived in.

See pages 10 and 11 of your Policy Booklet for details of all general exclusions that apply to all sections of cover.

Exclusions relating to Buildings cover

You are not covered for:

- Storm or flood damage to gates, hedges or fences.
- Loss or damage to the buildings or their foundations by settlement, unless the settlement is caused by subsidence of the site on which the buildings stand.
- Liability as owner of the property for death or bodily injury to you, your family or any domestic employee.
- Escape of water if the water or heating installation is outside or in a stand alone outbuilding.

See pages 14 to 18 of your Policy Booklet for the exclusions applied under Buildings cover.

Exclusions relating to Contents cover

You are not covered for:

- Theft or attempted theft when your home is occupied by someone who is not a member of your family unless forcible and violent entry is used to get into your home.
- Loss or damage caused by anything downloaded illegally or from illegal websites.
- Loss of metered oil or metered water while the home is unoccupied.
- Loss or damage to contents away from your home and not in a building, other than household removal.
- Escape of water if the water or heating installation is outside or in a stand alone outbuilding.
- Theft of valuables or money in the open or from garages and outbuildings.

See pages 20 to 28 of your Policy Booklet for the exclusions applied under Contents cover.

Exclusions relating to optional Personal possessions and Specified items covers

You are not covered for:

- Loss or damage caused by theft or attempted theft from an unattended motor vehicle or where a motor vehicle is stolen, unless:
 - there is evidence that forcible and violent entry took place;
 - the item is concealed in a glove or boot compartment; and
 - all access points to the vehicle are closed and locked.

See pages 30 to 32 of your Policy Booklet for the exclusions applied under Personal possessions and Specified items cover.

Policy Excess

Details of all excesses (the amount you must pay towards any claim) which apply will be set out in your Policy Schedule.

Your Policy will include any voluntary excess set by you and some specific compulsory excesses set by us. Please see your Policy Schedule for the amounts you will have to pay in the event of a claim.

Cancellation Procedure

You have 14 days from when you receive your policy documents or enter into this contract, whichever is later, to notify Tesco Bank if you want to cancel your policy. This is known as a cooling-off period. If you cancel your policy during the cooling-off period, your full premium will be refunded less the amount of any claim you have made.

You may cancel your policy any time after the cooling-off period by notifying Tesco Bank. Any premium paid for the remaining period of insurance will be refunded, less any cancellation charge applied by Tesco Bank, as long as you have not made any claim in the current period of insurance.

Royal & Sun Alliance Insurance plc or Tesco Bank can cancel this policy at any time, for a valid reason or if there are serious grounds to do so, by sending you 7 days' notice in writing. This notice will be sent to the last known address we have for you. Your premium for the time that was left on your policy will be refunded as long as you have not made a claim.

The policy will be cancelled with immediate effect if any claim or part of any claim is made fraudulently or falsely and no premium will be refunded.

See page 13 of your Policy Booklet for the cancellation procedure.

How to make a claim

Call the 24-hour UK-based Claims Line on 0845 078 7535.

It will be useful if you have your policy number to hand.

Once you have called we will register your claim, confirm what you are covered for and give you a claim number to quote. We will talk you through the next steps, confirm what excesses will apply (this is the amount you pay towards any claim) and, subject to the terms of the policy, we will either:

- arrange for repairs to be carried out;
- arrange to replace any lost, damaged and stolen items directly to you; or
- pay you the cash value of the lost, damaged or stolen items.

Where we have offered to repair or replace any item and you instead request for us to pay a cash value, we will not pay you more than the amount it would have cost for us to repair or replace the item.

See pages 7 to 9 of your Policy Booklet on how to make a claim and how we will deal with your claim.

What to do if you have a complaint

If you have experienced a problem in relation to your Tesco Bank Home Insurance policy, we will aim to sort it out as quickly and fairly as possible. We have the following complaints procedure which you can follow if you are dissatisfied with the service you have received.

Step 1: Let us know
