5-year transaction history

Banking regulations require us to give you a copy of your last 5 years of transactions when we close your account.

So, we'll post this document showing these transactions to your home address. It will list every payment in or out of your current account over the last 5 years and will look similar to your monthly statements. If you've made a lot of transactions over this time period, you are likely to receive a large paper document.

If you'd prefer NOT to receive all your transactions from the last 5 years in the post, please tick the box below.

☐ I don't want to automatically receive a 5-year transaction history document for my current account.

If you choose not to receive this information now, don't worry - you can still request it for up to 5 years after you close your account.

Please close my account *

Please email your completed form to PCAClosureRequests@tescobank.com

We'll process your request and send you a closing statement in the post when complete.

Due to very high demand in our contact centres, it may take longer than usual to process your request.

Please don't worry if you receive other communications from us in the meantime, we're working on your request.
